

Anti-Peace Film: OCCUPATION 101

Excuses violence rather than encouraging peace

Fabricates history to evoke contempt for Israel

Hurts both Palestinians and Israelis

Evokes age-old Christian libels against Jews and makes false claims, such as "the first converts to the teachings of Jesus were Palestinians." The first converts to Christianity were Jews.

Falsely claims that tiny Israel possessed superior might to the 5 Arab armies that attacked it in 1948. Shamelessly, the film tries to dupe viewers by using footage of Israeli forces in the 1967.

Casts aside Jewish connection to Israel and dismisses the international legitimacy given to Israel, a vibrant democracy.

Excuses or brushes over decades of Palestinian terrorism against Israeli civilians. Israel's security fence is denounced with zero mention of that fact that it stops terrorist attacks.

Fails to mention the corrupt leadership of Yasser Arafat, who stole billions of dollars from his own people and actively promoted terrorism.

Legitimizes terrorist Hamas that rules Gaza, which tortures its people, uses them as human shields, and uses schools and hospitals for rocket launching. Meanwhile, Israel continues to send extensive aid to Gaza.
