

Who Threatens Whom?

In the last 68 years, Israel has been attacked by various neighbors in nearly a dozen major wars and conflicts. It's been invaded by armies, rocketed from adjoining states and assaulted by waves of terrorists.

Israel has extended its hand in peace, but still most of these nations have rejected the right of the Jewish people even to the tiny area of Israel.

All nations have the right to live in peace and security — including Israel.